

DR. ARTHUR LAU AWARD IN GENDER HISTORY

The captioned award has been newly established, thanks to a donation to the Department by Dr. Arthur C. F. Lau, in September 2009. The award will be given to graduate students and final year undergraduates who demonstrate excellent knowledge of and insight on gender history, preferably within the pre-modern era. Graduate recipients should have published scholarly articles on gender history in well-established journals, whereas undergraduate recipients should have produced outstanding Hons. Projects on gender history and have enrolled in one of the programmes offered by the History Department. Up to two awards, each of $2,000 in value, will be given in an academic year, until further notice.
