Abstract

The revival of a local spirit takes time and patience. The cultivation of the lost genius loci that are yet to be continued is a life-long commitment of the citizens who love and own their place. The talk 'Our KTR' is to share the rediscovery of 'Kai Tak River' as a self-reflective process of the speaker who was raised next to the then-polluted 'nullah'. To recall a fading memory and to reconstruct a green future, the speaker worked with the community to regain our natural and cultural assets, but more importantly to offer a 'playground' for our next generations to 'design together, build together, and enjoy together'.
