

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
HONG KONG BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
香港浸會大學歷史系

THE HONG KONG
HERITAGE PROJECT
香港社會發展回顧項目

Young Historian Programme Oral History Preparation Workshop

Contents

- 1: What is Oral History? (by Wong Man Kong)*
- 2: Producing Quality Oral History Interviews (by Amelia Allsop)*
- 3: Personal Reflections on doing Oral History in the 1970s (by Geoff Emerson)*

Date: 1 March 2014 (Saturday)

Time: 10:00 am – 12:00 nn

Venue: SCM 012, Jockey Club School of Chinese Medicine Building, Baptist University Road Campus, Hong Kong Baptist University

Language: English

Wong Man Kong is Director of China Studies Programme and Associate Professor of History, HK Baptist University. Over the past five years, he has led HKBU students in conducting ten major community oral history projects, with which he has collaborated with 15 secondary schools and several hundred secondary students.

Amelia Allsop is the Manager – Business Research and Communications at the Hong Kong Heritage Project. She is the Joint Convener of the Hong Kong Oral History Group and has collected 200 oral history interviews since 2007.

Geoff Emerson is an experienced oral historian. Prior to his retirement, he was the vice-principal of St. Paul's College where he taught History and English.

◆ ◆ ◆ All are welcome ◆ ◆ ◆