

Class of 1984 Representatives Visited the History Department (2015.5.27)

Visiting alumni with History colleagues and Dr. Melanie Lee (AAO)

A homecoming group led by Mr. Sing-kit Yip (History alumnus, Class of 1984), donor of the “Lee Kam Keung Scholarship” and “Lam Kai Yin Scholarship,” visited the Department on 27 May 2015. The group toured the Department and met with some academic and teaching staff members at the Meeting Room, followed by a dinner at Shiu Pong Hall. Significantly, Dr. Melanie W. Y. Lee, Director of the Alumni Affairs Office, and Mrs. Lily W. L. Chan, Director of the University Advancement Office, kindly greeted the alumni in person at the Meeting Room and Shiu Pong Hall respectively.

Prof. Clara Ho presented souvenirs to the homecoming group.

Dear Sir/Ms/Msrs,

Your name and support in your other name is always a big blessing. We have submitted an "Alumni $100 Monthly Donation Campaign" which invites alumni to donate HK$100 on a monthly basis to support "Daniel and Kitty Tse Visiting Professorship Scheme," "Development of Chinese Medicine Teaching Hospital," "Hostel Donation Campaign" and institutional advancement of the University.

Professor Albert Chan, President and Vice-Chancellor of HKBU, has specially written letters for this donation campaign with a wish to share an important message that your donation will help HKBU achieve and sustain a high level of development of our other sector. Therefore, your donation on another day or small amount, can make a difference to HKBU's flow, your donation can also be supported through applying for the Government's matching grant.

Please thank you and share this message with your classmates!

Sincerely,
 Chairman, Chinese History, History of HKBU's Chinese Club
 Chairman, Wong Ngai-shing, Office of Chinese Teacher's Club
 Chairman, Hojung-fung, President of HKBU Alumni Association

百善積善，一善為先
 積善成德，德潤人心

The Department is pleased to announce that Mr. Matthew Shek-yu Wong 黃碩儒 (History alumnus, class of 1974) is the first History alumnus to join the "Alumni $100 Monthly Donation Campaign" and commit on a regular donation to the Institutional Advancement and Departmental Development Fund beginning April 2015. The Department would like to express its sincere appreciation to Mr. Wong for his generosity and long-term support.

The "Alumni $100 Monthly Donation Campaign" has been established by the Alumni Affairs Office since May 2013. The Campaign aims to encourage alumni to donate HK$100 monthly to support HKBU in different purposes, including "Daniel and Kitty Tse Visiting Professorship Scheme," "Development of Chinese Medicine Teaching Hospital," "Hostel Donation Campaign," institutional advancement or other specific departments of HKBU.
