Happy Lunar New Year!

恭賀新禧！

Happy 2018! This is a special year for the History Department because we are turning forty! To celebrate this occasion, we are planning a host of activities in the coming months. Participation and support from each and every member of the History family will be very much appreciated. We expect to involve our current students and faculty members, alumni, past colleagues, supporters and friends in different events to be held in this anniversary year.

Thanks to several generous donations from supporters, we are proud to have set up four endowment scholarships recently to honor our 40th anniversary, and are expecting at least one more to be established in a few months. Following our first event stamped with the 40th anniversary logo, an exhibition cum public lecture on the history of science and technology of China that took place in late January, our official kick-off ceremony for the anniversary celebration will take place at SCM012 at 4:30 pm on February 2, followed by a sharing session by a distinguished alumna. We will also activate our anniversary website (<https://hkbuhistweb.wix-site.com/hist40>) on the same day. We welcome the History family members as well as the general public to visit our website and browse the details of our celebratory activities.

Upon the activation of the anniversary website, we shall simultaneously announce a call for old picture submissions. Our target is to reconstruct our forty years of history through visual images preserved in the collections of our stakeholders. We are planning to include all submitted pictures in an electronic album to be shared online, as well as a printed pictorial history of the department based on selected submissions. Moreover, we are planning a big reunion on December 1, bringing together our past and present students and colleagues, and also our long-term supporters and friends. Please stay tuned for upcoming announcements. We are very excited about this celebration and we look forward to seeing many old faces on campus!

This will be a year of celebration. A lot of academic activities will also be hosted. Details will subsequently be posted to the anniversary website, which is linked to the homepage of the Department. You are most welcome to visit the website from time to time to obtain more information. Please also read our monthly newsletter to share our pride and joy in constructing and celebrating our own history. Forty years may not be a long time, especially for historians. However, for an institution that is only sixty two years old, four decades of dedication witnessed in a department is something to be proud of. While we are marching forward, we shall never forget the important hard work of our predecessors. It was their advanced insight and indispensable efforts that laid the strong foundations of our family. We are ever grateful to our former colleagues who contributed to the shaping of the Department at different stages. Some of them have departed forever, including the first three Department Heads, but their vision and love stay. The Department has experienced tremendous growth in the past decade, and will continue to strive for academic excellence in the years to come.

This is a caring Department and we are all committed to nurturing the next generation with love. Dear students, please work with us to make the Department an excellent place for teaching and learning. Supporting each other hand in hand, we will excel. Last but not least, I sincerely thank all of my colleagues who are involved in the preparation of our anniversary celebration. Without their talents and efforts, it would be impossible for us to enjoy a full year of celebratory events. Huge thanks to all of you and happy 40th birthday to the Department! Looking forward to seeing everyone at the kick-off ceremony.

Clara Wing-chung Ho

Head and Professor

In the Opening Ceremony, Professor Roland Chin (President and Vice Chancellor), Professor Ricky Wong [Associate Vice-President (Teaching and Learning) cum Academic Registrar], Dr. Peter Lee (Chairman, Joseph Needham Foundation for Science & Civilisation Hong Kong), Prof. Angela Ki-che Leung (Director and Chair Professor of History, Joseph Needham – Philip Mao Professor, Hong Kong Institute for the Humanities and Social Sciences University of Hong Kong), Professor Adrian Bailey (Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences), Prof. Clara Wing-chung Ho (Head and Professor, Department of History), Prof. Kam-wing Fung (School of Chinese, HKU and Executive Director, Joseph Needham Foundation for Science & Civilisation Hong Kong), Mr. Kendall Crilly (HKBU University Librarian), Mrs. Lily Chan (Director, University Advancement Office) and Dr. Melanie Lee (Director, Alumni Affairs Office) served as officiating guests.

Miss Zhihui Lin, PhD student at the History Department, served as the event MC. At the Ceremony, Mr. Crilly delivered a welcome address. He mentioned that the HKBU Library was delighted to work with the Foundation to introduce the great work of Joseph Needham to fellow students. In Dr. Lee's opening speech, he emphasized the impact and contribution of Joseph Needham, and the fact that China had developed its advanced technological power early in history.

Starting from 22 January to 23 February 2018, students are all welcome to visit the Exhibition which documents Needham's first encounter with wartime China. Joseph Needham is one of the most influential scholars in the 20th century, who wrote and edited the landmark history Science and Civilisation in China, a multi-volume, comprehensive study of Chinese scientific development and achievement. The exhibition features 11 boards, a short video and Needham's publications for viewers to gain an understanding of the life of Dr. Joseph Needham (1900-1994) and his contribution to the history of science and technology in China.

The Opening Ceremony was followed by a Public Lecture “Joseph Needham’s Science and Civilization in China and Its Impact on Today’s Study of the Chinese History of Science and Technology” by Prof. Angela Ki Che Leung, Director and Chair Professor of History, Joseph Needham – Philip Mao Professor, Hong Kong Institute for the Humanities and Social Sciences University of Hong Kong.

Joseph Needham’s Science and Civilization in China covered the history of Chinese chemistry, mathematics, biology, mechanics, navigation, medicine, and other disciplines. In the Lecture, Prof. Leung focused on two parts: medicine and food science (completed by Lu Gwei-djen and Huang Hsing-Tsung respectively after Needham’s death). The work examined the fundamental differences between Western and Chinese approaches to scientific advancement. According to Prof. Leung, these volumes provide insights to our society today and offer different perspectives for current researchers to look at Chinese history and culture.

開幕禮的主禮嘉賓包括：香港浸會大學校長錢大康教授、香港浸會大學協理副校長(教與學)暨教務長黃岳順教授、李約瑟科技與文明香港基金會主席李勵生博士、香港大學歷史系講座教授暨李約瑟-毛奇文基金教授及香港大學香港人文社會研究所所長梁其姿教授、香港浸會大學社會科學院院長貝力行教授、香港浸會大學歷史系系主任劉詠聰教授、香港大學中文學院及李約瑟科技與文明香港基金會總監馮錦榮博士、香港浸會大學圖書館館長Mr. Kendall Crilly、香港浸會大學發展事務處總監陳鄭惠蘭女士及香港浸會大學校友事務處總監李惠儀博士。

由1月22日至2月23日，學生可到圖書館觀賞展覽。李約瑟是20世紀最具影響力的學者之一，其編撰的巨著《中國科技文明史》共有二十多冊，對中國科學發展與成就進行了全面的研究。展覽內容包括11塊展板、一段短片及李氏學術著作，讓觀眾了解李約瑟博士(1900-1994)的生平及其對中國科技史的貢獻。

開幕禮結束後，香港大學歷史系講座教授、李約瑟-毛奇文基金教授及香港大學香港人文社會研究所所長梁其姿教授主講了一場公開講座，題為「李約瑟的《中國科技文明史》對今天科技史研究的影響與意義」。

《中國科技文明史》涵蓋了中國在化學、數學、生物、力學、航海及醫學等學科的歷史與發展。在講座中，梁教授重點提到其中兩卷：醫學和食品技術兩部分，它們分別由魯桂珍及黃興宗於李約瑟逝世後完成。這部巨著剖析了中西方科學研究的不同之處，梁教授認為這部書為今天的社會仍不斷提供啟示，並為當前的研究者帶來更多的視角以理解中國的歷史和文化。

Dr. Jatinder MANN 萬澤德博士

Reflecting back on my first semester in the Department of History it was certainly a busy one! Some of the highlights included: publishing my first sole-edited book, designing and teaching two courses – pretty much from scratch, applying for a major funding grant, having a journal article accepted and published, working on editing a special issue of a journal, securing a book contract for my next monograph, finishing the Canadian leg of my Global Book Tour for my first monograph in Vancouver, Canada, having two launches of my new edited book in Edmonton, Canada and Hong Kong, presenting my first conference paper in China, and joining the Editorial Board of an academic journal! Several of my academic friends had said to me that your first semester is always hectic and extremely demanding. But I had no idea what they truly meant until I was experiencing it myself. There was a lot to get to grips with. In particular, designing and teaching two courses, essentially from scratch, was quite a challenge. However, it was one that I enjoyed on the whole and I am proud of what I achieved.

My “History of Australia” course especially comes to mind. This was the smaller of my two courses and so I got to know the students individually and there was a great dynamic amongst them. The students of the class impressed me very much, particularly during the tutorials, with their wonderful presentations, great questions, and insightful comments. I have to admit that I was not sure what to expect from the students here in Hong Kong as I had not taught here previously, but I was very impressed with the enthusiasm, engagement, hard work, and dedication of the majority of the students on the course. Teaching the tutorial for the course was by far the highlight of my teaching week last semester! So, I was quite touched when the students asked to take a picture with me during the last lecture (which you can see below). I thought it would be nice to take the class out for lunch after the exam for the course as they had worked so hard. And I am very glad that I did, as a lot of fun was had (a photo from the lunch is also below) I am really going to miss the class and hope that I am fortunate enough to have such a wonderful group of students again!

I am also very excited about teaching this semester! I will be teaching a General Education Course on “Eminent Figures in the History of Various Disciplines and Professions”. I look forward to designing a new course during the summer on the “History of Canada” (which will be the first time that Canadian history has been taught in the department, and even Hong Kong I believe!) that I intend to teach in the 2018/19 academic year!

PhD student, Department of History, HKBU

2017年8月底至12月中，我有幸赴美國加州大學聖地亞哥分校歷史系（Department of History, UCSD）交流學習，個中點滴皆是我求學路上珍貴的回憶。這個難得的緣分始自我入學之初，業師劉詠聰教授邀請盧葦菁教授來浸大歷史系訪問並擔任客座研究員。期間劉老師多番鼓勵學生向盧老師請益，盧老師非常親切，勉勵有加。及後盧老師亦熱情接納學生的短期訪學願望，還熱心為學生撰寫推薦信，並第一時間協助解決申請過程中的問題。學生願望達成，有賴劉老師、盧老師的支持。此行部分費用來自RGC的Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme (HKPFS)研究經費，以及浸會大學社會科學院給予博士研究生的資助計劃，僅此致謝。

在美期間，除了論文寫作，我亦聆聽了3場講座，在自己的專業領域之外亦了解更多世界史的專題。蓋澤爾圖書館（Geisel Library）是我最常學習和寫作的地方。後現代的设计風格、舒適的研討環境、豐富的藏書和便利的館際互借系統，令我拓寬眼界，亦享受其中。

美國文化的熱情的確處處可感。超市收銀處、巴士上下點等照面場合，陌生人之間閒聊問候固必不可少，連過馬路時擦身而過的人，都會互道早安。聖地亞哥的自然風貌和人文景觀實在令人驚喜。在寫作和學習之餘，去灘塗看海豹、追雲、看日落，忘卻生活中的煩憂。這個城市是愛樹者的樂園，有一張專門為城內的樹而繪製的地圖，超過34萬棵樹，以一樹一名一地址的方式記錄在

冊。而我的住處在著名的巴爾波亞公園（Balboa Park）、植物園和動物園附近，每次流連其中，享受藍天、陽光和古建築，亦是美妙的體驗。

同時，我希望藉此分享機會，感謝以下各位，他們熱心幫助我適應美國生活，也分享學習經歷和人生體驗，讓我的訪問之旅順利而收穫豐富。他們是：歷史系蘆葦菁老師和葉保民師丈、圖書館中國研究管理員陳晰小姐、歷史系秘書Amber Rieder小姐、歷史系研究生關瑋玥小姐、梁皓朝先生，以及歷史系訪問研究生李冰冰小姐。

期待日後再有機會探訪親切的師友，重訪這個既有活力又安靜的城市。

My Experience in Minor History

As a Government and International Studies major, historical studies played an important role in training my research, writing and argumentation skills. I was trained to organize and interpret different events, which is extremely useful in writing research papers. Besides, minoring history is like complementing my knowledge in the field of International Relations. As my interest largely lies in the area of American studies to which courses were largely offered by Dr. Schley, I was able to use my course credits to study all courses related to the history of the US. These courses include the United States history since and after 1877 and also US Diplomacy since 1898. The intensive learning experience I have while minoring History developed my research interest in the US-Philippines relations, which subsequently became the topic of my honors project. Thanks to the help of Dr. Schley, I was able to explore and assess the historical events and arguments regarding the US-Philippines relations in my history term papers. I am truly grateful to have taken such a meaningful minor and to have met such an inspiring teacher like Dr. Schley.

YIJING AND YIJING COMMENTARIES

韓子奇教授 Prof. HON, Tze-ki
香港城市大學中文及歷史學系教授

內容簡介：《周易》是中國的古老經典，內容豐富，包括卦象、卦辭、爻辭、和《十翼》等部分。我們坊間一般把《周易》歸類為占卜算命，忽略了從漢代到清代《周易》是士大夫必讀的“儒家經典”，並寫下不少的注疏演繹“生生之謂易”的道理。因此二千年來，易學研究不斷蓬勃發展，推進了天文學、醫學、哲學、政治學、和行為心理學的發展。這個講座專門介紹兩種易學：漢代的象數易學和唐、宋時期的義理易學。把易學的豐富內容給大家作一個簡單的介紹。

Becoming Eurasian: The Establishment of The Welfare League and Eurasian Identity in Inter-war Hong Kong

Prof. Emma J. Teng

T.T. and Wei Fong Chao Professor of Asian Civilizations
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

◆ Abstract

This paper examines the founding of Hong Kong's Welfare League in 1929, led by a group of prominent Eurasians in the colony. I argue that the founding of this organization was a watershed event in the institutionalization of Eurasian identity in pre-World War II Hong Kong. Prior to this time, many prominent Eurasians in the colony publicly claimed a Chinese identity, both as a means to escape colonial racism and as a means of upward mobility. I argue that an "ethnic shift" took place among Hong Kong's Eurasian community around the time of the formation of the Welfare League, leading many in the younger generation to publicly embrace a "Eurasian" identity. C.G. Anderson (1889-1949) played a leading role in defining a vision of this identity as a founding member of the Welfare League. This paper examines Anderson's vision of "Eurasianness" in relation to broader social changes of the time, and the particular role he imagined Eurasians playing in the fight against colonial racial hierarchies and exclusion.
